

Submit your business plan and win your share of R20 million in business funding

Author:

SME's, start ups, entrepreneurs and business owners looking to grow their businesses can now see their share of R20 million worth of prizes which are up for grabs in the 2007 FNB Enablis Business Plan Competition.

Prizes will be split amongst 20 winner across various industries such as tourism and transport, construction, manufacturing, property and retail, energy, media, information and communication technology, services, agriculture and mining beneficiation.

The closing date is 31 August, leaving entrants well over a month to get their business plans together.

For business plan guidelines and further information, visit the competition website www.enabliscompetition.co.za or call the competition information line for more details 083 913 3362 .

<http://www.enabliscompetition.co.za>