Dear Customer

SAB deposit increase

The deposits charged for SAB returnable containers are to be increased on Monday 13 August 2007. The new deposit rates are also applicable to all returnable containers in trade at the moment.

Deposits are reviewed from time-to-time in consideration of loss rates in the market and the cost of new, replacement containers to SAB. Deposits are charged to motivate the prompt return of containers that are in good condition. Improved returns enable SAB to keep future beer price increases to a minimum.

The deposit increase has no impact on the retail price of beer as you are able to refund new deposits to your own customers without delay.

Find attached the new deposit rates.

Yours sincerely

Brian Bingham
