Category entered

(Tick the appropriate box / boxes below. For more information refer to the brochure accompanying this entry form)

Best social involvement programme _____

The judges are looking for the business that has made the most effort to ensure the integration of its activities with its local community. Your entry should focus on the extent to which you are involving your community in your business activities and the extent to which your community benefits socially from your business activities.

Best practice – economic impact _____

The economic impacts of tourism and the effect that your business has on its local community are the focus of this category. The judges need to understand the extent to which your business contributes to the economic benefit of the community and your ability to quantify the impacts that you have on the community.

Best overall environmental management system _____

This category aims to determine the extent to which you are managing your environmental impacts as a business in a sustainable and responsible manner. The judges are looking for a system that encompasses and integrated approach to environmentally sustainable and responsible business practice.

Best single resource management programme _____

Three awards will be made in this category, one each for water management, energy management and waste management. Each category must be entered separately.

Water

Energy

Waste

Investor in people award

The need for well trained, educated and developed individuals in the tourism industry is the focus of this award. The judges will consider the extent to which you have taken practical steps to develop the human resource component of your business, specifically the efforts that have been made in excess of any national minimum standards or guidelines.

Most empowered tourism business

To qualify for this category, your entry should reflect and communicate the extent to which your business has addressed the issues of empowerment and has contributed to a globally competitive, demographically representative tourism industry.

Entries from all categories will be considered for the overall Imvelo award.

Chairman's Award

If you are aware of a particular business, individual, association or organisation that deserves special recognition for their contribution to the development of responsible tourism practice, please nominate them for consideration (may be eligible for overall Imvelo award).
